Classic Coach acquires Hampton Luxury Liner Campollo Middleton Advises the Purchaser

Bohemia, NY – Campollo, Middleton & Associates, LLP, a leading full-service Long Island law firm, has announced that it provided legal and advisory services to Classic Coach, the Bohemia-based ground charter service, in its recent acquisition of Hampton Luxury Liner. Details of the transaction were not disclosed, other than to describe it as "a multi-million dollar investment in the Hamptons travel market."

The transaction puts Classic Coach in direct competition with Hampton Jitney, the Southampton service that carries passengers between New York City and the Hamptons. Classic Coach's schedule will include six daily roundtrips with its 55-seat luxury coaches that include DirectTV and Internet service.

"The transaction was relatively straightforward," said Joe Campollo, partner at Campollo Middleton. "Both parties and our law firm are very experienced in the transportation business, so there were not many surprises. We worked hard on the details, did some tough negotiating, and got the deal done in record time."

"Adding the Hamptons run gives our company a broader customer base," said Bill Schoolman, President of Classic Coach. "Since 2002, we've tripled our revenue in motor coach charters between Long Island and Atlantic City. We also have a good share of the New York metro charter market, with many high school clubs, senior travel groups, and tour operators as customers. This acquisition helps round out our market base."
