Campolo, Middleton & McCormick, LLP Named Winner of Prestigious HIA-LI Business Achievement Award

Leading Full-Service Law Firm Recognized in Rookie Category

Bohemia, NY – Campolo, Middleton & McCormick, LLP, a leading full-service Long Island law firm, has announced that it is the winner of the prestigious HIA-LI Business Achievement Award in the Rookie-of-the-Year category. It was chosen from an outstanding pool of Long Island businesses, following a rigorous selection process by a judging team of independent business people. Criteria for selection included positive employer/employee relations, contributions to the Long Island community, revenue and profitability trends, vision for the future, recent accomplishments, and business strategy for growth. Campolo, Middleton & McCormick will be recognized as the winner and receive its award at a ceremony held at the Crest Hollow Country Club in Woodbury, NY on Tuesday September 14, 2010.

"We are honored to be receiving the HIA-LI Business Achievement Award in the Rookie-of-the-Year category," said Joe Campolo, Partner at Campolo, Middleton & McCormick, LLP. "Receiving this award recognizes the success of our firm's outstanding staff in delivering legal services with large firm quality and small firm value."

"HIA-LI is pleased to recognize Campolo, Middleton & McCormick, LLP with our Business Achievement Award in the Rookie-of-the-Year category," said Terri Alessi-Miceli, President of HIA-LI. "The HIA-LI Business Achievement Awards are the highest recognition possible for Long Island-based businesses. In fact, we believe that the winners of these awards are among the best run companies, not only on Long Island, but in the entire world."

Past winners of the HIA-LI Business Achievement Awards include Allstate Insurance; Clear Vision Optical; Community Development Corp.; EAC, Inc., H2M; mindSHIFT Technologies; Middle Country Public Library, Stalco Construction and VAI, Inc.
