Joe Campolo Elected to Hauppauge Industrial Association of Long Island (HIA-LI) Board of Directors

Bohemia, Long Island, New York – Campolo, Middleton & McCormick, LLP has announced that Managing Partner, Joseph N. Campolo, Esq., has been elected to the Hauppauge Industrial Association of Long Island’s Board of Directors. Campolo has been very active in the HIA-LI, speaking and moderating various panels and discussions. Campolo, Middleton and McCormick, LLP was recognized at the HIA-LI’s Business Achievement Awards as Rookie of the Year in 2010 and in 2011 was a finalist in the Small Business category.

“Joe uses his invaluable expertise to help guide us by always answering the question ‘What is the right thing to do for our HIA-LI members’,” said HIA-LI President Terri Alessi-Miceli, as she welcomed Campolo to the Board.

Campolo brings to the HIA-LI Board his experience running a rapidly-growing full-service law firm and many activities in the Long Island community. He served as President of the Stony Brook University Alumni Association and as President of Child Abuse Prevention Services (CAPS). He is currently on the Board of Directors for the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Suffolk County and the Social Enterprise Alliance - Long Island. He is also a member of the Town of Brookhaven Small Business Advisory Council and is on the faculty at Stony Brook University, where he teaches Business Law in the MBA Program.

About the HIA-LI

The HIA-LI helps Long Island businesses prosper. For over 30 years, they have been the recognized voice for Long Island businesses and a powerful force for regional economic development. They provide a forum for business leaders to network, problem solve and obtain advice on critical issues facing their businesses. The organization has over 1,000 member companies and thousands of business professionals. HIA-LI programs and events promote strategic partnerships, targeted networking, information sharing and business advocacy. Members benefit from our educational programs, career resources, research capabilities, mentoring opportunities and business advisory services.
