

DeRiggi merges with Campolo, Middleton & McCormick

by Bernadette Starzee

Published: November 5th, 2013

LAW

Following the merger of her Huntington law firm with Campolo, Middleton & McCormick in Ronkonkoma, Ellen Bissett DeRiggi is of counsel to the firm, where she works in the corporate, real estate, trusts and estates and labor and employment practice groups.

Lamb & Barnosky welcomed attorneys Kim A. Smith and Gregory A. Gillen to its Melville offices. Smith, of counsel, previously worked as an attorney at the Manhattan firm Cahill Gordon & Reindel. Gillen, who came aboard as an associate in the education, labor and municipal department, was previously associated with Guercio & Guercio in Melville.

REAL ESTATE

Paul Spateri joined Mortgage Advantage in Huntington as a business development and mortgage specialist. Previously, Spateri was regional manager at South Fork Funding Inc., a mortgage brokerage firm in Hauppauge.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Mary Austin joined Melville-based HJMT Public Relations Inc. as a graphic artist. Previously, she worked as a graphic designer at Craig Daily Press in Craig, Colo.

NONPROFITS

Nicole Behrens, board president of The Retreat in East Hampton, was chosen by The Women's Peacepower Foundation Inc. to receive a Women of Peace award, for her work in bringing peace to the everyday lives of women.

Complete URL: <http://libn.com/moversandshakers/2013/11/05/deriggi-merges-with-campolo-middleton-mccormick/>