This year we will celebrate Touro Law Center's Liberty & Justice Dinner on Thursday, April 28th at 6:00 pm at the Garden City Hotel. We are pleased to send you the attached "Save the Date/Sponsorship Flier" and invite you to support Touro Law through one of the giving opportunities described on the flier.

At our Liberty & Justice Dinner, we will welcome Touro Law Board member, lawyer, banker, and entrepreneur John Tsunis and Touro Law Assistant Dean for Institutional Advancement Linda Howard Weissman as new members of our Builders Society. The Builders Society was created to recognize individuals who have played a role in the establishment of a solid foundation for the Law Center. These individuals have helped Touro realize its potential, from the initial dream of our founder, Dr. Bernard Lander, to the reality of more than 6,500 graduates. We are grateful for their dedication.

Our 2022 award recipients have each honored us by their work, their steadfast support, and their dedication to the ideals of the Law Center. Our Distinguished Dean's Medal Recipient, Neal Garelik of Excel Global Security has long been a friend and supporter to many non-for-profit organizations, including Touro College. The Corporation of the Year Award will be presented to Tritec Real Estate. Tritec has been recognized by many for its strong community support, and we are honored to celebrate this worthy organization. The Law Firm of the Year Award will be presented to Campolo, Middleton & McCormick, LLP. Campolo, one of Long Island's leading law firms, has a strong history of hiring Touro graduates, including several partners, of-counsel attorneys, and associates who help support the law school in realizing its mission. We will also honor Touro alumnus Dorian R. Glover '96 with the Paul S. Miller Award. Dorian, the immediate past president of the Nassau County Bar Association, has been an adjunct professor and Moot Court Judge for the Law Center. His leadership among the members of the Nassau County Bar has been extraordinary. The Hon. Victoria Gumbs Moore '00, Suffolk County Family Court will receive this year's Elected Official of the Year Award. Judge Gumbs Moore is a member of the Law Center's Board of Governors, and a founder of the Amistad Bar Association of Long Island. We applaud her leadership and dedication to goals of the Law Center.

Plans for the Liberty & Justice Dinner have been set in motion. It promises to be an exciting evening, as we hope for more than 300 guests in attendance. Past Dinner proceeds to support our mission and student scholarships have been critical for Touro students. Please take a moment to review the attached material, consider your level of support, and click the link to make your gift today.
